The Reef galley to close Sept. 29

BY JO1 (SW) TRICE DENNY

The final decision about The Reef galley's future came to fruition Wednesday. The Reef galley at Naval Air Station (NAS) Key West will close for good Sept. 29 in a decommissioning ceremony during lunch.

The decision to close the galley was made by the Commander, Navy Installations Command (CNI) and was based upon two important factors, said Lt. Julie Treanor, Commander, Navy Region Southeast food service officer. "Cash sales above 45 percent per day at galleys, and galleys serving less than 100 Rations in Kind (RIK) Sailors per day."

Treanor explained cash sales as the percentage of meals sold for cash that day as compared to using a ration card. RIK Sailors receive a ration card for use at galleys rather than pay cash. Most Sailors in Key West are not issued a RIK card, but receive Basic Allowance for Subsistence (BAS) and use that to pay for meals, said Treanor.

NAS Key West and NAS Atlanta, Ga., are the only two galleys in the Region that exceeded those two factors, said Treanor.

An important point that was made to keep NAS Key West's galley is related to the mission of NAS Key West. As a flight training facility,

Sigsbee Self-help to close for good

BY CHARLIE ROBERTS
NAS Key West Housing Director

The Self-help store located at the Housing Welcome Center on Sigsbee Park will close for good Oct. 1 at 5:30 p.m. The last day for equipment checkout will be today and all equipment must be returned no later than Oct. 1. Any equipment currently checked out must also be returned by Oct. 1.

Equipment not returned by the due date will result in the occupant reimbursing the government for the cost of the equipment.

Opinions/Editorials

A letter to you

Dear military, retirees, civilians, and family members,

In the past several weeks our state and its neighboring states have truly been devastated by inclement weather and severe hurricanes in so many ways. Fatalities, destructions and threats have been consumed by massive media coverage. The last two hurricanes were so severe that many of our state residents are still without electricity and water.

Can you imagine what it would be like without these two necessities: Inability to cook hot meals and drink water. The local stores are without much of the frozen foods because of damages and no electricity.

Currently our very own commissary cannot provide meats because of the damages in Pensacola. Key West has been spared these inconveniences and we remain blessed to enjoy both as well as other amenities. We certainly have a beautiful county!

As we continue to enjoy ourselves, let us stay mindful of those not so fortunate. No doubt, each of you has heard about the tragedies and crises surrounding us to the point of getting nauseous. But! Have you felt like you wanted to help and wasn't quite sure as to what you could do? Well, I have the answer to your thought-provoking question...Naval Air Station Key West, tenant commands and South Florida Federal Communities, in collaboration with local emergency food assistance organizations, is participating in an ongoing Federal Food & Hygiene Drive from Sept. 13 through the 30th. Many victimized families have already sought food and hygiene items from these organizations. Currently the federal agency is providing items for more than 30,000 showers per day! Due to the recent events and their devastating impact on our state, plus many other tragedies, many of the food bank pantries have been depleted.

Folks, we need your help!! Your assistance would be greatly appreciated in donating non-perishable food and hygiene items! Please let me say it again: Your charitable and sacrificial giving of items is desperately needed to replenish empty food banks.

Drop off locations are listed below, please help us, to help them in reaching our goal to raise 1 million items of food throughout Monroe County!

You can, we can - Together we can make a difference!

The following locations are provided for your convenience to drop off your food and hygiene items: Navy Exchange and commissary, galleys, gas stations, and all departments. For additional information, please contact the chaplain's office at (305) 293-2318.

May God bless our efforts!

Very Respectfully,

GTC: Here's the real deal

First off I'd like to thank all of you for your patience in getting Government Travel Card (GTC) issues resolved during our recent hurricane evacuation. I'm glad that I was able to assist. Hopefully what we've all learned from this evolution will make the next one, if required, to run even more smoothly and efficiently.

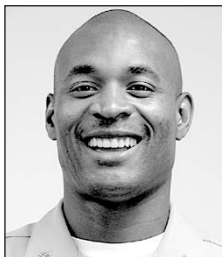

By now, all of you should have completed a travel claim for reimbursement. The processing of travel claims is usually liquidated within 30 days of being submitted. We, evacuation groups, have priority over regular TAD claims and it is my hope that reimbursement occurs before Bank of America GTC statements are issued.

After reviewing the Transaction Activity Report during our evacuation period, here are a few items of note:

(1) Personnel in a "leave" status during the evacuation were not authorized to use their GTC nor are permitted to submit a travel claim for reimbursement.

(2) You will not be reimbursed for rental car expenses if you

GTC Coordinator

MMC (SW)
Jarvis L. Morgan

were not authorized the use of one through your travel orders. (3) No purchases should have been made on the GTC after the return order was given and once you arrived in Key West.

(4) Only a few people were authorized to return after Sept. 13 and any purchase after that date may not be reimbursed.

Keep in mind that you are responsible for any outstanding balance on your account that is not covered by your travel claim and split-disbursement and that all GTC payments are due in full by the Due Date specified on the statement. Making partial payments will still carry over any unpaid balance as "OVERDUE" and your account will become delinquent as well as suspended for use and is subject to late fees until the debt is resolved.

Also remember that financial responsibility and trustworthiness are key components for determining whether a military member or civilian employee is eligible for the issuance of, or continuation of, a security clearance.

Please be responsible and ask questions now because you WILL BE held accountable later.

Make an accurate accounting since you will be responsible for any outstanding balance.

Keys' environmental pollution has ugly, yet recognizable face. Us!

BY MAYA TOTMAN

Director, Exotic and Wild Bird Rescue of the Florida Keys

Humans make it extremely difficult for many pets and all wildlife to, simply put, live their lives. The islands of the Florida Keys are known as "paradise" for residents and visitors alike.

Many of these islands are permanent homes for thousands of people as well as being a vacation destination for millions more. In fact, this "paradise" is fraught with danger for animals, especially since the islands are small, thus concentrating every hazard. Antifreeze from cars of "northern" visitors pools in parking lots; this sweet, poisonous liquid pollutes the limited fresh water available to all species as well as attracting many who love the taste.

Pity the raccoon, Key deer, dog, cat, dove, gull, or other animal life looking for a refreshing drink of water. Antifreeze kills.

Trash abounds, especially along the shorelines, thanks to sunbathers and boaters; hungry mammals have been found dead with their heads caught in jars, and birds have died entangled in monofilament fishing line. Speeders in automobiles and boats kill all sorts of animal and marine life, and bored children, teens, and even adults use birds, reptiles, and mammals for target practice, the majority using BB guns; some 22's.

The thoughtlessness of people is staggering. People see what they want to see; they don't see the damage they are causing to the environment until they themselves are affected.

The mission of Exotic and Wild Bird Rescue of the Florida Keys (EWBR) is to rescue and rehabilitate sick and injured birds, restore habitat to its previously pristine condition, and educate the public so that everyone is made aware of the importance of respecting all life and keeping the environment safe and clean for present and future generations. Ultimately, however, we are all affected.

We are deeply committed to a clean environment. As a rescue organization, we have first-hand knowledge about the devastating effects on our environment of human carelessness and thoughtlessness. Trashing our land, polluting our waters - nothing good is coming from this, and we see the detrimental effects every day. We are weary of treating wildlife for injuries caused by their habitat being trashed. Many injuries are easily discernable, but recently, with birds who have died unexpectedly, we have had necropsy reports come back noting that the birds died from ingestion of toxins in the environment, speculating they ate contaminated fish. This is no small matter. First wildlife and then people!

Our goal is to get the word out, forcefully and repeatedly, that people cannot continue to disrespect our environment and expect it to support us. By informal educational opportunities (such as asking people witnessing a rescue to help untangle a bird from its monofilament prison) and formal presentations (programs at RV parks, marinas, and organizational meetings) as well as setting an example by organizing trash clean-up days and by cleaning up trash ourselves, we hope to make a small dent in the problem and a lasting impression in people.

The job in the Keys is huge. There isn't a day when one can drive down any road, visit any bridge or beach, hike through any mangrove or hammock, and not see trash. Our wildlife suffers, but especially our wild birds. Ultimately, we hope to reduce the number of birds that need medical treatment and rehabilitation and mitigate the danger to other wildlife. It is heartbreaking to see the horrible deaths, disfigurements, and wounds that our wildlife suffers, and people need to know. They haven't a clue that, by the seemingly innocuous act of disposing of whatever they don't want in what appears to be an unoccupied habitat, they are responsible for so much maiming and killing - until they themselves are affected.

Education of children has become paramount in importance. Change is often difficult for adults, but education of children will establish the foundation upon which our future depends. EWBR's program focuses on interactive education, thus making children participate so that the material being presented is reinforced; participants are asked to write and mail letters about what they learned, and when possible, they are surprised by an article in local newspapers. The program is conducted in schools throughout the Keys.

We are a round-the-clock rescue organization. Seven days a week, 24 hours a day, we can be reached at 305-872-1982.

Cub Scouts at Sigsbee

BY BILL BURNS

Pack 252 of the Cub Scouts has a very active pack at Sigsbee Elementary School under the leadership of Cub master Andre Bone. The boys are arranged in Dens starting at Tiger cubs, then Wolf cubs, Bears and finally Webelos.

Tiger cubs begin in the first grade, Wolves in second grade, Bears in third grade and Webelos in the fourth and fifth grades. The boys then move up to Boy Scouts when they transfer to middle school.

All boys are heartily encouraged to join. One upcoming event is a camp-out in October at Camp Sawyer, the Boy Scout camp just north of Big Pine Key.

Den meetings are held on Thursday evenings, but locations depend on the den leader. For more information on how to join, call Bone at 293-0439 or e-mail him at cubscout-pack252@yahoo.com.

Even if your child did not join the Cub Scouts in the first grade it's not too late to join in the fun now. The Cub Scouts always encourage new members.

The truth about pizza

1. Pizza is America's fourth most-craved food, behind cheese, chocolate and ice cream, according to the American Dairy Association. Each man, woman and child in America eats about 46 slices of pizza per year, according to Packaged Facts, a consumer market research group based in New York.
2. Pepperoni remains America's favorite topping, with mushrooms, extra cheese, sausage, ham, bacon, pepper and onions also ranking high, according to Pizzaware® Gourmet Bakeware and Pizza Hut®.
3. SuperBowl Sunday ranks

among the top 5 days for pizza deliveries annually, along with Thanksgiving Eve, New Year's Day, New Year's Eve and Halloween, according to Domino's Pizza.

4. The tomato came to Naples, Italy in 1522 from explorers who visited Peru. They were thought to be poisonous until poor Neapolitans used them in cooking in the 17th century.
5. The first known pizza shop opened in Naples, Italy, in 1830, using large brick ovens as it still does today.
6. The first pizza delivery was by Raffaele Esposito of Naples, Italy, in 1889, to King Umberto and Queen Margherita. The Queen refused to go to a pizzeria, ordering in the food she had heard so much about. Esposito cooked up a pie that resembled the Italian flag with red tomatoes, white mozzarella cheese and green basil. He dedicated the specialty to the Queen and called it "Pizza Margherita."
7. The world's fastest pizza maker makes 14 pizzas in two minutes, 35 seconds, according to Domino's.

Fleet Master Chief

Happy Birthday Shipmates!

BY FLTCM(SW/AW)
"BUCK" HEFFERNAN

On October 13, our Navy will celebrate its 229th birthday. As I look back over our history, it's clear to me we have some incredible accomplishments. Our Navy has grown into the most dominant sea service in the world and as we prepare for yet another birthday, I'd like to offer my opinion of why our Navy continues to be respected.

While many may suggest we are a capable Navy because of the sophisticated equipment we have, I firmly believe our biggest advantage is our people. Without dedicated Sailors, our Navy would not move forward.

Our Navy today is challenged by war and budget cuts, but I believe our best days are still in front of us. All across the fleet I am confronted by Sailors who are meeting our challenges head on and see a bright future. That, to me, means we are a proud service. At the root of our pride are our core values.

I challenge everyone to read our core values again and recommit yourselves to upholding each of them...

Each of us posses a common set of principles that guide us in our actions. Without common values, we would not accomplish common goals.

As we celebrate our Navy's birthday, I challenge everyone to read our core values again and recommit yourselves to upholding each of them:

HONOR: I will bear true faith and allegiance...; Accordingly, we will: Conduct ourselves in the highest ethical manner in all relationships with peers, superiors and subordinates; Be honest and truthful in our dealings with each other, and with those outside the Navy; Be willing to make honest recommendations and accept those of junior personnel; Encourage new ideas and deliver the bad news, even when it is unpopular; Abide by an uncompromising code of integrity, taking responsibility for our actions and keeping our word; Fulfill or exceed our legal and ethical responsibilities in our public and personal lives twenty-four hours a day. Illegal or improper behavior or even the appearance of such behavior will not be tolerated. We are accountable for our professional and personal behavior. We will be mindful of the privilege to serve our fellow Americans.

COURAGE: I will support and defend...; Accordingly, we will have: courage to meet the demands of our profession and the mission when it is hazardous, demanding, or otherwise difficult; Make decisions in the best interest of the navy and the nation, without regard to personal consequences; Meet these challenges while adhering to a higher standard of personal conduct and decency; Be loyal to our nation, ensuring the resources entrusted to us are used in an honest, careful, and efficient way. Courage is the value that gives us the moral and mental strength to do what is right, even in the face of personal or professional adversity.

COMMITMENT: I will obey the orders ...; Accordingly, we will: Demand respect up and down the chain of command; Care for the safety, professional, personal and spiritual well-being of our people; Show respect toward all people without regard to race, religion, or many galley customers are transient personnel here for training. The barracks many of those personnel stay in are on the same base as the galley.

“Given our mission and day-to-day operations, NAS Key West is unique when compared to other Navy bases and air stations,” said Scholl. “We argued our case and presented data to show that keeping the galley open supported numerous transient personnel.”

Another point was made to show the importance and cost effectiveness of the galley - its location. Many other bases have fast food places on base as well as a galley. With the nearest restaurants located two miles away from the base, the galley provided a quick nutritious meal at a very reasonable price, said

Lt. Cmdr. Tyonia Burns, NAS Key West supply officer. “The galley also served the only breakfast on base,” she said. “It will be sorely missed.”

In all, approximately 11 galleys in the continental U.S. are slated to close, said Treanor. Another step CNI took was to restrict the use of the remaining galleys to certain personnel. Anyone with access to the Navy Exchange or commissary is the same person who has access to base galleys, said Treanor. All the cost savings associated with galley closures and restrictions will be rerouted for other operations throughout the region, she added.

Sailors and other service members in Key West do have an option when it comes to eating at the galley, however. The Coast Guard galley at Trumbo Point is open to active duty service members and government service employees. Retirees can eat lunch at the Coast Guard galley only from noon to 12:30 p.m. on weekdays.

Coast Guard galley hours are: breakfast, 7 to 8 a.m., lunch, 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., and dinner, 4:45 to 5:45 p.m. Brunch is the only meal served on the weekend, from 10 a.m. to noon, and it is open only to active duty

The day-to-day duty of every Navy man and woman is to work together as a team to improve

The Coast Guard galley does not take reservations, however, if a large group of service members other than Coast Guardsmen want to eat, they need to let the galley

As you read these, a little self-reflection should help you realize how many of these things you uphold and how many you could use a little improvement on. Trust me, none of us are perfect. We all slip from time to time, but I find reading our values keeps the target in sight. If we all strive to uphold these values, we, as a service, will continue to lead the world's sea services.

“All I need is a phone call from the group, and I can make sure there is enough food available for that meal,” said Food Service Specialist 1st Class Radford Hoffpauir. “We make a great meal here.”

Hoffpauir can be reached at 292-8822.

I can think of no better time to revisit how we serve then on our Navy's birthday. Shipmates, all across the fleet we are able to witness incredible accomplishments by our Navy men and women. Please do what you can to help celebrate our birthday this year and be proud of what you do. Serving your country is a privilege and you have every right to hold you head high and know that you are respected for being a Sailor. Happy Birthday Shipmates!
